

Watchung's
Texier House
Museum

10 Mountain Boulevard

The Texier House Museum is Watchung's central location for history, photos, fun facts, and artifacts. Visit and investigate each of the 6 rooms independently or together, speak with our tour guides, and learn about the many wonderful tales from Watchung's (nearly) 100 year history!

Open the 1st & 3rd Sunday of each month from 2pm to 4pm.

Admission is FREE!
Donations are always greatly appreciated.

Exhibit Highlights:

- A copy of the original hand-written diary of Captain William Parlin (father in law of Congressman Eaton), who led the first black battalion of soldiers during the Civil War.
- Operate a preserved hand cranked siren from World War II.
- Display showcasing athletes of the Borough, including sports memorabilia from New York Giants legend Bobby Thompson.
- Restored stained glass skylight and other artifacts and photos from the Moldenke Castle
- And much more!

